SUMMARY

Front-end developer proficient in React, Redux, and Tailwind CSS. Experienced in building dynamic and responsive user interfaces using JavaScript, HTML, and CSS.

PROJECTS

Weather Forecasting App

- I created a weather forecasting app using React and Bootstrap CSS. I integrated real-time data from the OpenWeatherMap API to enhance the user experience with responsive design.
- Implemented API integration to offer real-time weather updates and a user-friendly interface across different devices.

Netflix Clone

- Developed a Netflix clone using HTML and CSS, with JavaScript for interactive elements and basic functionality.
- Replicated Netflix's user interface and layout, demonstrating proficiency in front-end design and responsiveness.
